BEDROOM SIZE	MINIMUM / MAXIMUM PERSONS
1 Bedroom	1 to 3 people
2 Bedroom	2 to 5 people
3 bedroom	3 to 7 people

If the household exceeds the maximum occupancy during tenancy, the household may be allowed to remain in the unit until the lease expires, or for a reasonable period of time after, before being transferred to a larger unit or move from the property. This is not applicable to the addition of adult occupants. Adding unauthorized occupants, without first obtaining management approval, is considered a violation of the lease.

Rental Scores

The approval of credit is based on rental scores. Rental scores are relied upon to estimate the relative financial risk of leasing an apartment to you. Scores are calculated using a weighted average of factors and your rental score results from a mathematical analysis of information found in your credit report and application. Such information may include your bill-paying history, the number and type of accounts you have, open bankruptcies, eviction histories, unpaid utility bills, collection actions, charge-off, repossession, outstanding debt, income relationships (rent-to-income and debt-to-income ratios), and other attributes that reflect on your qualifications to meet the terms of your lease.

Because your rental score is based upon real data and statistics, it is more reliable than subjective methods of evaluating your information. Rental scoring treats all applicants consistently and impartially.

Rental Score Recommendations

Approve – This is the most desirable recommendation and has the lowest security deposit level.

Approved with Conditions – Although the application will be accepted on this recommendation, this score presents a higher risk and may require the highest security deposit or co-signer.

Decline – The community may not proceed with the application.
